Barbershop -- Just Another Team Sport

Two quartets from Huntley High School recently participated in the Fourth Annual Region 3 Young Women In Harmony Barbershop Contest sponsored by the Sweet Adelines International Lake Michigan Region Three and by the Fox Valley Men of Harmony Chapter.

Jessica Fangman, Lauren Jones, Jenn Samson, and Katrina Wiecek of the Have You Heard of the Cone? quartet and Four-Part Funatics comprised of Grace Borhart, Melissa Dahl, Ashley Langford, and Taylor Little, all students at Huntley High School, competed in the contest. Have You Heard of the Cone? won the Quartet Contest, and Four-Part Funatics scored Second Place Honors.

The girls performed with passion and pride as they represented themselves and their school. “It seems like barbershop is getting to be just another team sport – you have fun, learn the plays, develop skills, practice, and compete,” said Krickett Kean of the Melodeers Chorus. “Of course, our goal would be that these young women not only have fun with it now, but also develop a love and passion for the ‘game’ that will endure for a lifetime.”

It’s exciting to see young women involved in barbershop, and as they continue to improve their skills and their performances, we hope they will always share their passion.

Huntley High School is located at 13719 Harmony Road, Huntley, Illinois 60142. Please contact Nancy Cross, Huntley High School Choir Director, at (847) 659-6744 for more information.
